A few words from Pastor Ray

Seven years! Congrats to each of us. We have made it. There are plenty of pastorates that do not last seven years, and I am excited to not be one of them, so congrats to Michelle and I. That also means, that you have managed to hang in there with us for seven years too. Congrats to you. The past six years have been nothing short of great. I believe that we have honored God as we sought to lead the best we can.

We have been faithful to say I am sorry when we have gone off path. Together as a church we have grown in our ability to love our neighbors and to love each other. We have continued to pursue new life in Christ, and have seen people come to know Jesus.

Today and in the days ahead we celebrate each step that the Lord has taken us. Thanks for the last six full years. Thanks for allowing me to be YOUR pastor.

Thank you for following the lead that I believe God is calling us to. Most of all thanks for entrusting me with sacred moments with each of you. I am blessed and I am thankful. From Michelle, myself, and our kids...Roxborough Church, Thank YOU!

While celebrating the end of our 6th year of ministry is exciting and turning 7 together is worth celebrating, I still firmly believe that the best is yet to come! I hang on to the hope that God is doing something new, fresh and revitalizing in our community of faith. This fall we have launch dour Sit One Serve One initiative.

It is going be great to see our church engaging in small groups where they can learn, and serving in some capacity together. Do not wait. Join a group as soon as you are able. September 24th also marks a special day in the church when we will "Leave the building" and we will go out to the community to serve. Sign up on the bulletin board for the service opportunity that makes the most sense for you and your family.

Lastly, while we have ongoing programs and while we launch new ideas, please know that it will never replace our primary call here on the Ridge & Port Royal corner. We quicken our grip on our calling to share the Good News with the lost. We strengthen our voice and straighten our backs as we boldly proclaim the Gospel in our city. We will continue to invite people to know God, surrender to Jesus, and allow their steps of life to be renewed in Him.

Table Talk

-Amy Karl, Food Ministry Coordinator

The volunteers at The Table wish you a Happy Fall! Together, with the assistance of The Philadelphia Project and the volunteer groups of students, we served 400 meals during the summer to our families in our community. We are proud to represent the church and be the hands and feet of Christ to our neighbors. At The Table we are always willing to have a conversation, fellowship with others, and offer an uplifting smile all while sharing the love of Christ.

This fall brings exciting opportunities at The Table. Sit One Serve One is an excellent opportunity for anyone to get involved in the pantry. There is something to do every day of the week. Please take a look at the sign up sheet in the Welcome Center and join us as we serve the neighbors in our community.

The 2nd Annual Empty Bowl Dinner will be held after church on Sunday, November 5 from 12:00 to 3:00. An Empty Bowl Dinner is a fundraising lunch/dinner in which participants have a choice of four homemade soups. Your soup will be served to you in a curated bowl of your choosing which you take along with you. Our prayer is that your bowl will remind you of folks who are not financially able to fill even a single bowl with soup and need your help to provide nutrition for their family. We suggest a $10.00 donation per person with all the funds go toward the work of The Table.

If you are 55 or better, listen up! Please join us for lunch and a time of fellowship. The Elder Diner will meet on Mondays - October 2, November 6, and December 4 from 11:00 to 1:00. If you are not quite 55 and would like to help serve lunch, please contact Amy Karl at 267-908-4553. We look forward to seeing you at the upcoming Elder Diners.

Be a Blessing and Be Blessed.

Children's & Family Ministry

- Ricky Gomez,
Children's Ministry Coordinator

It's crazy to see the summer come and go as quickly as it did! Yet it was filled with opportunities that God provided to minister to both the children at Roxborough and those in our community through Summer Friends. The theme for this summer was The Great Adventure. Outback Jackie (Sarah Denes, TPP ReFUEL Summer Intern) helped the kids see through her own adventures how amazing God is. The kids learned that discipline can be fun through workshops like Karate (Action Karate). Pastor Ray took us on a journey through the life of Moses and helped us see that God is inviting us all into the most amazing adventure of our lives through a relationship with His Son, Jesus. No matter where we are in our lives, I believe God is continually calling us to experience him in deeper and more profound ways than we thought possible.

This summer in Children's Church we looked at the Israelites, Moses, and Joshua and discovered how God rescued his people from slavery which actually points to a greater rescue that God would later bring through Jesus to save us all from our sins. We saw how God fought for, provided for, and protected his people showing that God is truly faithful and trustworthy. We learned that we can trust God no matter what happens! This fall we will follow the biblical story into Judges and see that despite God's faithfulness, God's people still struggled to believe and obey God which shows our need for a savior. The good news is that God has not left us hanging! Jesus is the Savior we have all been waiting for!

I am also excited to announce that our R.U.S.H. ministry for 3rd-6th graders will kickoff again Friday, September 15th from 7pm-9pm. R.U.S.H. provides a safe and fun atmosphere here at Roxborough Church. We provide food, games and activities for your children. We also engage the kids with biblical teaching and provide a time for them to ask questions about God and faith, discuss real life issues, and seek out what a relationship with Jesus is all about.

As the new Children's Pastor here at Roxborough Church, I want to personally say thank you to The Philadelphia Project and the Summer Interns who helped minister to our children this summer through Children's Church, the Wednesday Night Barbeques, and the various other ways they helped serve. Parents, thank you for your encouragement and entrusting me to teach and care for your children in this new season. It is humbling to be in such a position and an honor that I get to serve you and your kids in this way. I look forward to getting to know you all better this year as well!

Lastly, please be sure to save the dates below which include Children's Church and R.U.S.H. events. I know that you and your children won't want to miss them!

Women's Bible Study

- Pam Vercoe

Calling all women. Are you looking for a bible study that will take you deeper into God's word and enrich your walk with God? Come and check us out.

We are presently studying the book of Revelation with Beth Moore, "Here and Now, Then and There. Prior to this study we studied Daniel with Beth Moore. In this study we are learning of the prophecy given to the Apostle John when he was exiled on the Isle of Patmos. Revelation is prophecy yet to come, some of which we are witnessing today in our life time. What can we expect? How are we to respond? The answers to these questions can be found in the Book of Revelation. We as students have been awe struck and left speechless as we have looked at this book. We have learned much and know that while we keep our eyes on the sky we must be doing God's work, spreading the Good news to all we come into contact with for we do not know when the Lord will come back for us. As Christ did, we should long for all to know him as their Lord and Savior.

Beth Moore studies are typically video driven. One meeting we view the video for the lesson. Between meetings we do the homework in the work book and when we come back together we discuss the homework and what we get out of the study. Because her studies are in depth we do not rush through them.

If this sounds like a study you would like to be a part of please come out and join us. The beauty of our studies is the lessons are not connected to one another so you can jump in at any time and be able to follow.

We will resume meeting Tues. evening Sept. 19 at 7:30 pm at 776 Cinnaminson Street. A typical meeting is as follows, we meet at 7:30; we have a short time for catching up and prayer requests and prayer. After prayer we either view the video or we begin discussing the homework we worked on. We end at 9:00 or shortly after when it is a video with prayer.

Contact Pam Vercoe for more information, 610-828-80543 or 610-203-4273.

MISSIONARY NEWS

A PEEK FROM THE PEAK!

- Liz Loeffler

Well, it WAS like I thought it would be, speed-dating during my two weeks here in the Philly area after the training in Baltimore during the early part of August. As a matter of fact I just got back from a meeting with RPC Mission Committee, this Sunday evening, (sorry to have missed you, Amy!) and bringing them up to date on my nearly 30 years of Women's Ministry with Entrust and an update on the current status of the Asian project.

It is exciting times for me in ministry, with more opportunity/requests for the Women-to-Women Ministry Training (WWMT) than we can handle. As I mentioned to the Mission Committee tonight the US Military is a wide-open door with possibilities beyond imagination that I dreamed about with a military chaplain, the husband of one of the women in our Baltimore training. Oh if only I could multiply myself!

We had a wonderful time at our first-ever hub training on the East Coast, in Marriottsville, MD, just outside of Baltimore. The accommodations, we facilitators (who have facilitated in locations around the world), deem Bon Secours the best yet. Take a video tour of the grounds <https://rccbonsecours.com/grounds-meditation/video-tour-of-grounds/>

Next year's training there will be from August 5 – 11, 2018 when we will be offering Facilitating Relational Learning (a co-ed module); Developing a Discerning Heart; and Discovery Bible Study.

Cost for accommodations, training and materials and 3 delicious meals a day is between $800-$900, for your planning purposes. Also plan in 20-30 hours of preparatory work that needs to be done before coming.

One comment we heard over and over again is "I thought I was coming for a teacher training type workshop (we only offered Facilitating Relational Learning this year), and never expected the depth of spiritual nourishment we received!"

The registration form will go up on our website www.entrust4.org/wwmtcalendar after the first of the year. I would LOVE to see several women from Roxborough Church there next year.

While I served as an Entrust Certified Lead Facilitator in Maryland, I will be co-facilitating in October the same module (Facilitating Relational Learning) in Chiang Mai, Thailand. A hub training in its 4th year, established by Barnabas International's women's ministry, with whom we are in partnership.

Their Women's Ministry Director, Debbie Lamp, was formerly the Women's Ministry Directory with Greater Europe Mission, and pioneered the Entrust WWMT with missionary women, after a discussion we had back some 16+ years ago!! Debbie will be the Lead Facilitator with whom I'll be co-facilitating. This will be my first time in Thailand.

This is preceded by three weeks in three cities in "my Asian country" (being a creative access country can't mention the name in print) meeting with former graduates, attending a session of their 2nd generation training, as well as meeting with potential new participants and strategizing with leadership and a new potential partner, how best to launch our next thrust into Asia.

While there I'll be attending a 3-day conference on the complexities of working in that challenging environment, hosted by a large Christian entity working there. I attended their last bi-annual conference in 2015 and came away quite challenged and impressed by their expertise.

I showed the Mission Committee a short 5" video I produced on the growth of Entrust's Women's Ministry particularly since 2009 when WWMT was official launched. Over 2,500 women have been through our training from over 150 mission agencies, churches and seminary, including many national lay leaders!! And we continue to get more and more requests. Therefore, in the coming years we are working toward establishing another 16 training hubs --- 12 internationally and four additional hubs in the States.

We need part-time workers to help us staff these training hubs and my dream is to see a team of 3-4 women from Roxborough Church begin preparing now to do just that!

As I thanked the Mission Committee of Roxborough Church, let me thank you the readers of this newsletter for your years of faithful prayer and financial support that has allow me to participant in a such an exciting and successful ministry. Without you this would have never happened!!!

Youth Update from Pastor Matt Hillanbrand

Many Thanks to Our Summer Intern: Brooke Cobb

Brooke had spent a very good two months with us this summer. She was a vital part in our summer ministry here at Roxborough Church. Brooke oversaw our girls' discipleship this summer, meaning she lead small groups, bible studies and met one on one with many of our female students this summer in addition to helping lead our two summer mission trips. We honestly can't do much of our summer plans without an intern, so we are very grateful for Brooke's investment in our students.

SUMMER HIGHLIGHTS

This summer was quite the adventure. Our students were able to go on two mission trips! Our first week was spent locally with the Philadelphia Project serving through their mercy ministry track. This was such a great week for our students as we had spent our time serving the homeless and families in the midst of difficult situations in one way, shape or form. There is so much I can say about the TPP trip but can't fit it all on one page. Come see me if you would like to know more. In addition, we had sent our high school students up to Vermont for our third summer in a row. In case you are unaware, Vermont is the "least churchd" state in our nation, meaning less than 97% of people in the state are affiliated with a church. Our main goal while we are there is to meet local peoples needs and get them connected to the churches up there so that way they can grow to know and love

Jesus for the rest of their days. I would love to share more about this with you so in person!

JOIN OUR TEAM

Church, we are currently praying and looking for 4 adults (2 men and 2 women) to join us in serving our students on Sunday evenings. If serving middle school or high school students seems like a dream ministry to you, then we are the right place for you to serve! For more info please email me at youth@roxboroughchurch.org.

A Word on Worship

-Scott Granato,
*Director, Music
& Worship*

This month I bring you an interesting article from Bob Kauflin of Sovereign Grace Music about the importance of words in our worship songs. I hope you find it as interesting as I did.

Words are the primary way God has revealed himself to us and relates to us. We use words because God is a speaking God. From the garden of Eden, words have been God's primary means of interacting with us. At Mount Sinai, God met the Israelites with thunder and lightning, thick clouds, and an ear-splitting trumpet blast. Quite the worship experience. But the most significant aspect of that encounter was God giving them the "Ten Words" (Deuteronomy 4:2–12). God has always wanted us to know more of him than can be conveyed through impressions, images, or sounds, as powerful as they may be.

David was a skilled musician of profound emotions. But when it came to worshipping God, it was his words, not his music that God chose to preserve for us in Scripture.

When Israel returned from the Babylonian captivity, Ezra sought to reestablish temple worship. So he and the other priests stood on a platform and read "from the Law of God, clearly, and they gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading" (Nehemiah 8:8). God's Word provided the foundation for the repentance, gratefulness, praise, and celebration that followed.

Jesus rebuked the Pharisees and scribes for basing their worship more on traditions of men than on God's commands (Matthew 15:3–9). The early Christians devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching (Acts 2:42). Paul encouraged Timothy to devote himself to the public reading of Scripture and commanded him to "preach the word" (1 Tim. 4:13; 2 Tim. 4:2). We are to "let the word of Christ dwell in [us] richly" as we sing (Colossians 3:16).

God means for words, especially His Word, to be at the heart of our engaging with him.

Words are what we use to define God, ourselves, and our world. Among other things, words tell us how God has acted in history and what God is actually like. Words inform us that we are sinners who deserve the wrath of God but that Jesus has come to suffer the wrath of God in our place, purchase our forgiveness, and reconcile us to God. Words also tell us that creation was once in harmony with God's will but through our rebellion became subject to decay and futility. We are not evolving into something better but experiencing the damaging effects of the fall until the day when Jesus returns for his bride and makes all things right. Words also enable us to distinguish between experiences rooted in musical emotion or eternal truth.

Worship is more than words, but it's not less than words. Encounters with God are sometimes difficult to define. But wordless worship is not somehow better than worship with words. Worship without words can never communicate objective truth and God is the defining, objective reality in which we live and move. Experiences, whether audibly through music or visually through art, are in large part subjective. The ultimate goal of our worship is not to reach a state of feeling without thinking. And Revelation indicates we'll be using words (without sin!) in the new heavens and earth.

Words enable us to worship God together. Words enable us to think and say the same things together, rooting our unity in the gospel and not simply in a shared experience. A hundred people listening to a song being played can have a hundred different thoughts about what is happening. As my friend Jon Payne has said, "A picture is worth 1000 words. The problem is, the viewer gets to decide what those words are." There will be some variation when we hear/proclaim words together, but there's greater potential for unity in our understanding and expression. It's one of the reasons God has us sing words together and not simply hum, whistle, or use nonsense syllables.

Words complete the act of worship. I can't make this point better than C.S. Lewis, who wrote in Reflections on the Psalms, "But the most obvious fact about praise — whether of God or anything — strangely escaped me. I thought of it in terms of compliment, approval, or the giving of honor. I had never noticed that all enjoyment spontaneously overflows into praise...I think we delight to praise what we enjoy because the praise not merely expresses but completes the enjoyment; it is its appointed consummation." My love for my wife leads me to say something. Again and again and again. I want her and others to know my feelings. So it is in our relationship with God. Worship works its way out into words.

So by all means, let us thank God for music and treasure those times we're dumbstruck as we consider the unparalleled greatness, holiness, beauty, and mercy of God in Jesus Christ. But let's also remember that God redeemed us to "proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light" (1 Pet. 2:9).

Preschool Update

- Christina Gann, Director

Our preschoolers had a blast at PreFuel Summer Camp this year! PreFuel Summer camp had over 50 preschoolers attend each day, led by Kim Karl with an amazing staff of employees and volunteers. The campers learned all about our world and about God's character, enjoyed days like mismatch day and pajama day, played water games, and so much more.

As we gear up for the fall we have a couple of changes to announce within The Philadelphia Project Preschool. For any that may not yet know me, my name is Christina Gann and I will be the new director for the preschool! I have been a teacher here for the past 3 years, since the day we opened! I have been honored to work alongside Christina Platt as she led the preschool these last couple of years. It has been amazing to watch the ways that God has grown the school so far and I am excited to see how He continues.

We have also hired two new teachers and trust that they will make a great addition to our Preschool staff! Wednesday, August 16th, we had our Open House and got to see some old faces and meet some new ones that will attend our school this year. We are excited to welcome our students to school on Tuesday, September 5th! Our staff would appreciate your prayers as we are eager to dive into this upcoming school year!

Congratulations !!

to Dan & Christina Platt
on the birth of their daughter
Quinn Mae.

Please join us in praying for the Platt's and celebrating the new addition to their family.
